

Former Ames Girl Is Wed

Miss Louise Vander Linden of Ottumwa, and James I. Deam of Dows were married Sunday morning, Jan. 23, at ten o'clock in the Memorial Union, Iowa State college, Ames. They were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Ray Vander Linden of Des Moines. The Rev. Walter C. Barlow of Ames was the officiating clergyman. Immediate relatives of both the bride and groom were present at the wedding.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in the loggia of the Memorial Union.

Miss Vander Linden is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Vander Linden of Ottumwa, formerly of Ames. She attended the public schools of Ames and Ottumwa, and is a graduate of the Ottumwa high school. She also attended the State University of Iowa, where she was affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta sorority.

Mr. Deam is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Will C. Deam of Dows. He is a graduate of the State University of Iowa, and is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

The bride wore a traveling costume of navy blue with dubonnet accessories, and a corsage of violets.

Immediately following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Deam left for a trip to Atlanta, Ga., and other southern cities. Upon their return they will live at Dows, where Mr. Deam is associated with his father in the banking business.
